- ACTIVITY • MUSEUM -

The architectural icon of the Helgeland coast

The Petter Dass Museum at Alstahaug is the millennial site of Nordland County. The museum conveys the cultural heritage of the poet priest Petter Dass (1647–1707). At the historical site lies the museum's main building designed by the architectural practice Snøhetta AS, an 18th century parsonage and the medieval church of Alstahaug.

Exhibitions

Want to know more about Denmark-Norway in the 17th Century, religious symbols or Norwegian hymns and religion? Our exhibition tells you about Petter Dass, the time he lived in, and how his legacy has played part in our cultural history.

A 20 minute film about the poet priest and what influenced him, is also included in the entrance fee.

Café and gift shop

Margrethe's café serves local food. The museum's gift shop has a wide selection of books and gifts.
