LAKSFORSEN

- DINING · TRADITIONAL FOOD -

At the spectacular Laksforsen falls is a familie-operated restaurant that serves hearty traditional food.

The salmon's paradise

The view through the panoramic window is breathtaking - the raging waters and the spray from the waterfall. You can feel the thunder of the falls! And diners can often see the salmon's impressive leaps as it struggles to navigate upstream.

A family tradition

The Forsmo family has operated the restaurant for decades. Throughout the years, several generations have worked side by side, taking great pride in inherited recipes and food traditions, that are all too easily forgotten by today's busy society. Naturally, every dish on the menu is based on the region's best ingredients.

The perfect break along the E6

Laksforsen is a very impressive location. Situated a mere stones's throw from highway E6, it is the perfect place to stop, stretch your legs, and savour the waterfall and a fine meal.

Exhibition of the salmon-fishing lords

Don't forget to visit the photo exhibition that documents salmon fishing through the ages. English lords and ladies travelled far to spend their holiday at Laksforsen.
