ABOUT

Scandic Meyergården Hotel is situated in Mo i Rana's town centre. Its restaurant features a menu based on locally sourced ingredients. Whether you are with your family, friends or colleagues, this hotel is an ideal place to stay.

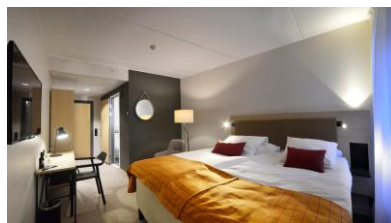

Guests appreciate Scandic Meyergården Hotel for its location, ambience and attractive private gardens. The hotel is a great base for sightseeing and adventures along the scenic coast as well as for exploring Helgeland's inland tracts. In the town centre, you can stroll the fjord promenade, stop to gaze at the merman statue, explore the old neighbourhood of Moholmen, and visit the Science Centre (Vitensenter Nordland).

Near the town of Mo i Rana are glaciers, impressive caves, the Arctic Circle, and it's close to premier hiking destinations such as Rabothytta cabin and Saltfjellet national park.

Scandic Meyergården Hotel's history dates to the 1880s. You can choose between rooms in many styles and price categories, in sizes that include family rooms. The hotel has one of the largest conference facilities in Northern Norway.
