ABOUT

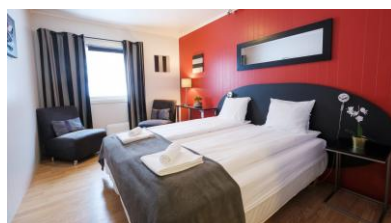

Terråk Gjestegård is located in the heart of Terråk, just a short walk from local shops and the marina, surrounded by mountains and fjords. The hotel offers 15 rooms in the main building, including single and double rooms, as well as four spacious family options. In addition, there are two timber cabins that each sleep six – ideal for larger families and groups. All rooms are individually furnished with private bathrooms, high comfort, and sea views.

Færingen Spiseri serves pizza, sushi, and traditional Norwegian dishes based on local ingredients – fish, game, and farm produce. An adjoining bar and pub area with full service offers a relaxed setting for guests and groups in the evening. The restaurant also includes two event rooms that can host up to 95 people in total, making it a great choice for weddings, family gatherings, and corporate dinners.

Open year-round, with flexible dining options, a variety of room types, and conference facilities, Terråk Gjestegård is an authentic and versatile base for tour operators looking to create local experiences. The hotel also offers activities – bike and boat rental, visits to a boatbuilding workshop, and nearby nature excursions – making it a great base for activity-based travel in Northern Norway.
