ABOUT

Torghatten Strandrestaurant is set in a scenic spot just 20 km from the centre of Brønnøysund. The restaurant offers an authentic dining experience, with a focus on seafood and locally sourced ingredients. Its location near Torghattan, known for its distinctive hole through the mountain, makes it an ideal stop for travellers who want to enjoy both the outdoors and a quality meal.

The restaurant is open during the main season from June to August, with extended opening hours in May and September. This gives tour operators the flexibility to include a visit here in different travel itineraries. While there is no specific environmental certification, the restaurant is known for its emphasis on sustainable and local food choices.

With its scenic setting, focus on local cuisine, and proximity to Torghattan, Torghattan Strandrestaurant offers a memorable experience for visitors exploring the Helgeland coast.
