ABOUT

Experience dog sledding near the Arctic Circle. Our teams are ready for shorter trips combined with campfires and other winter activities, giving many the chance to try dog sledding in a single day.

We also offer longer tours through scenic landscapes, where you'll experience both the dogs' incredible stamina and the unique connection to nature that comes with mushing.

Get to know the dogs, learn a bit about balance, communication, and technique – but most of all, enjoy a great day outdoors as you glide swiftly through the landscape. A unique way to experience the Arctic Circle up close.
