ABOUT

Nordland National Park Centre is a natural stop just north of the Arctic Circle. Set in beautiful architecture and scenic surroundings, the centre combines the Adde Zetterquist Art Gallery and the Nordland National Park Visitor Centre into one unique experience that brings together art and nature.

Discover the landscapes and national parks of Nordland through engaging exhibitions that blend art and nature. With activities for both children and adults, and walking trails nearby, the whole family will find something to enjoy.

The entire centre is wheelchair accessible, and much of the surrounding trail network is too—making both short and longer adventures easily within reach.
