ABOUT

Located at the water's edge in the historic fishing village of Husvær on Helgeland's scenic coast, Havkanten Restaurant offers guests a memorable dining experience founded on fresh, seasonal, locally sourced ingredients.

The menu highlights the best of the region's produce — from seafood harvested straight from the fjord to vegetables and farm products from the surrounding area.

Its unique waterfront location, combined with panoramic views of the sea and rugged island landscape, makes Havkanten a standout culinary destination for inclusion in travel programmes, group tours, and incentive travel offerings.

This restaurant complements Adventure Helgeland's wider portfolio of authentic coastal experiences and adds significant value for tour operators, travel designers, and corporate planners seeking genuine Norwegian food culture in an exceptional setting.
