ABOUT

Welcome “home” to Hildurs Urterarium, a truly unique destination where nature, food, and hospitality come together in inspiring surroundings.

Here, guests can enjoy carefully prepared dishes made with love and respect for local ingredients. The kitchen draws inspiration from the surrounding landscape — from herbs grown in the garden to produce from local farmers, forests, and fjords.

The restaurant and gathering spaces are surrounded by a beautiful herb garden filled with more than 150 plant species, roses, and colourful perennials. Guests are invited to wander through the garden, breathe in the aromas of fresh herbs, and enjoy moments of calm in nature.

Whether you visit for a meal, a special occasion, or simply to enjoy the peaceful atmosphere, Hildurs Urterarium offers a warm and personal experience where good food, history, and nature meet.
