ABOUT

On Seløy, a beautiful little island in Herøy municipality on the Helgeland coast, Ingrid and Remi welcome you to a place for shared experiences—set in beautiful natural surroundings and housed in a building ideal for team-building and meaningful stays. Skolo is a unique accommodation set in peaceful, sheltered surroundings. Here, every group—large or small—can set their own pace and plan their own days.

The hosts welcome groups year-round and are highly flexible when it comes to tailoring meals and activities to the group's wishes. Skolo isn't a typical hotel—it's the island's former school, now transformed into an architect-designed, character-filled space with deep historical roots. You'll sleep well in apartments and double rooms, all renovated with great care for both old charm and modern comfort.

The entire building, which sleeps around 30 people, can be reserved for your group, offering a warm and personal setting for time together. Package deals and tailor-made plans are available, with food playing a central role in the overall experience.
