ABOUT

Storli Camping & Aernie is beautifully located by the Rana River, just 20 km north of Mo i Rana and the legendary Saltfjellet, close to the Arctic Circle and the Svartisen glacier. This spot combines authentic camping with rich cultural experiences at Aernie – a Sámi-inspired farm café and activity arena. Guests can take part in Sámi cooking around the fire, taste traditional foods like suovas and rengakaka, try lasso throwing, and hear South Sámi stories from the hosts. The café is seasonal, but cultural activities are offered year-round.

Accommodation suits both couples and small families: three cosy camping cabins (two beds) and two traditional luxury gamme lodges for two to three guests. A newly renovated service building with showers, toilets, and a kitchen is available to all.

The surrounding area offers outdoor activities year-round. The Rana River is perfect for kayaking and fishing, with peaceful nature and fresh air. Hiking trails lead to the idyllic old croft at Lapplia, and nearby sights like Grønligrotta offer guided cave tours. In winter, Svartisen glacier and the Arctic Circle are just a short drive away.
