ABOUT

TilSvartisen offers professionally guided glacier hikes on Svartisen, providing guests with a safe and immersive Arctic experience in a dramatic alpine setting.

Participants are equipped with necessary glacier gear and guided across the ice while learning about glacier formation, movement, and the surrounding fjord landscape. The experience combines physical activity with interpretation and strong visual impact.

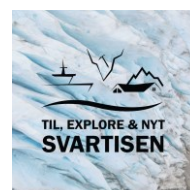

Tours are available during daytime and evening departures. Evening departures during the midnight sun season offer extended light conditions and enhanced scenic value.

This product is suitable for adventure-oriented travellers, cruise guests, incentive groups, and curated nature-based itineraries seeking an accessible yet high-impact Arctic activity.

An iconic Arctic experience on one of Norway's most impressive glaciers!
