ABOUT

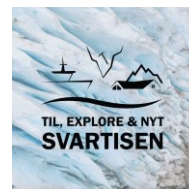

Join us for an engaging and scenic historical walk from the dock to the restaurant, where nature and storytelling come together.

Along the way, your guide shares fascinating insights into the development of tourism in the region and the recent retreat of the Svartisen glacier — one of Norway's most iconic natural landmarks. You will also discover intriguing facts about glaciers, their movement, and their role in shaping the dramatic landscape around you.

This walk offers more than just beautiful surroundings — it provides perspective, knowledge, and a deeper connection to the powerful forces that have shaped the Svartisen region.
