ABOUT

Unwind in our wood-fired sauna, surrounded by nature and powered by tradition.

Heated with firewood gathered locally, this off-grid sauna offers a truly authentic Nordic experience. With no electricity and no modern distractions, you can fully embrace the simplicity and calm of the surroundings.

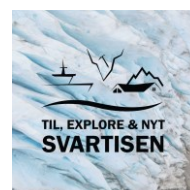

Cool down with refreshing glacier water and feel the contrast between heat and cold awaken your senses. Towels are provided, so all you need to bring is your sense of adventure.

Please note that the sauna is rustic in character, without full changing room or shower facilities — adding to its genuine wilderness charm.

A pure and elemental wellness experience, rooted in nature.
