ABOUT

Trixie Restaurant offers a refined yet welcoming dining experience at Laksvollen, just outside Trofors in Grane municipality — an ideal stop for travellers exploring Northern Norway.

Beautifully positioned between the Vefsna river system and the E6, Trixie combines convenience with scenic surroundings. Large windows invite the landscape in, while the spacious interior provides a relaxed and comfortable setting — whether you are pausing for a short break or settling in for an unhurried meal.

The kitchen focuses on well-loved classics executed with generous quality and care. The menu features freshly prepared pizza, flavourful kebab, satisfying burgers and a broader selection of hearty dinner plates, complemented by desserts to complete the experience. Clear allergen information is provided on the official menu, ensuring transparency and ease for all guests.

Trixie has built a strong local reputation for warm, attentive hospitality. The atmosphere is inclusive and relaxed, making it a natural meeting place in Trofors — equally appreciated by residents and visitors discovering the region.

For travellers seeking a comfortable, reliable and scenic dining stop in Helgeland, Trixie offers both quality and genuine Northern Norwegian hospitality.
