ABOUT

Ytri Island Retreat is a high-end boutique property located 60 km offshore in the Træna archipelago, offering a rare combination of remote location, refined comfort, and strong destination identity.

The hotel provides elegantly appointed rooms with panoramic sea views and a hospitality concept built around discreet luxury and personalised service. Stays can be complemented by gourmet dining, wellness elements, and customised local experiences tailored to guest profiles.

As a gateway to Træna's 477 islands, Ytri offers strong experiential value through year-round activities including kayaking, hiking, fishing, island hopping, sauna rituals, and sea bathing in the open ocean.

The property is well suited for high-value FIT travellers, executive retreats, incentive programmes, and curated luxury itineraries seeking exclusivity, authenticity, and premium comfort in a dramatic coastal setting.
