The food and culinary philosophy

The menu at Svang changes weekly. The chefs and hosts take pride in giving you a pleasant surprise:

“Every day we buy choice seafood from our local fishmonger. We take pride in basing our dishes on the best local ingredients. This includes meat as well as fish, vegetables and berries. We also offer locally brewed beer. Our reward is seeing the look of satisfaction on the faces of our diners.”

Your hosts also believe that your drink should enhance your dining experience. Our knowledgeable staff will gladly suggest wine and beer pairings that complement the dishes you choose.
